Ghouls haunt AMC during Halloween MonsterFest

By Jacqueline Cutler
TV/DATA FEATURES WRITER

The Fourth of July and Thanksgiving are more meaningful, but nothing beats Halloween for indulgent bliss. We can be thankful next month. For now, let's gorge on that 5-pound bag of candy and settle in for a marathon of marvelous monster movies.

American Movie Classics' MonsterFest '99, airing Sunday, Oct. 24, through Monday, Nov. 1, offers creatures from the deep and from beyond, giants of many species, and the man made from spare parts.

AMC has also nabbed the king of horror movies, Roger Corman. Not only has he been a fixture on AMC all month introducing movies; he produced and stars in a serial movie that airs in segments between the channel's monster features.

Opening Sunday with a big fang, MonsterFest begins with "Horror of Dracula" (1958), the first of five prime-time monster movies leading up to a weekend of nonstop chills. The others are the animated "Mad Monster Party" (1967) on Monday, Oct. 25; "Frankenstein Conquers the World" (1966) on Tuesday, Oct. 26; "The Curse of the Mummy's Tomb" (1964) on Wednesday, Oct. 27; and "The Werewolf" (1956) on Thursday, Oct. 28.

Cover story

The network has also made its own documentary about the history of the genre. "Attack of the 50-Foot Monstermania," narrated by Bill Mumy ("Lost in Space"), premieres Tuesday, with repeats Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 29, 30 and 31.

The documentary's producers theorize that giant monsters became popular during the Cold War, tapping into our anxiety about the atom bomb. Who could forget "War of the Colossal Beast" (1958), whose title character, the product of an atomic blast, grew 10 feet a day? And of course, there was Godzilla, another atomic creation who became one of the most famous monsters in movies.

On Saturday, the network offers 10 Godzilla flicks, beginning with the classic original "Godzilla" (1954) and ending with "Godzilla vs. Destroyah" (1995).

Who better to introduce these movies than the man behind so many of them? Corman has a psychological theory about why monster movies are popular.

"I think it's part of the whole fascination with the fantastic. I think it goes back to early childhood fantasies," he says from his Los Angeles office. "I believe we are dealing with our childhood fears repressed into the unconscious, the little child's monster under the bed, or the fear of the dark. All of these things are in the unconscious minds, and I think it's healthy to break through the conscious mind and release those repressed fears."

Do all 'Friends' have the same name?

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

What was up with the opening credits on the season premiere of "Friends"? Everyone's last name was Arquette! -Mary Jordan, Carthage, Ill.

Courteney Cox, who plays Monica on the hit sitcom, married her "Scream" co-star David Arquette last summer and has taken his last name (Cox says she plans to drop the "Cox" eventually). What you saw in the credits was simply a little joke by her colleagues on the show.

Several years ago I remember seeing a movie on TV that starred a single actor in the role of Harry S. Truman. Who was the actor, what was the name of the movie and where can I find it on home video? -Ione M. Bessent, Brownwood, Texas.

I suspect you are thinking of "Give 'Em Hell, Harry!," a mid-1970s taping of James Whitmore's acclaimed one-man show. Videotaped for telecast, it was transferred to filin and released theatrically, copping a Best Actor Oscar nomination for Whitmore.

You can check the availability of any home video release by calling Movies Unlimited at (800) 4MOVIES.

I belatedly learned of the death of Flip Wilson, which didn't seem to be reported in my area. When and where did he die? -Pauline Shelly, Bristol, Ind.

The beloved comic, whose sassy drag persona Geraldine Jones was a sensation in the 1970s, died of liver cancer in Malibu, Calif., nearly a year ago, on Nov. 25, 1998. He was 64.

Was that Farrah Forke co-starring in the Lifetime movie "Abandoned and Deceived"? She looks so familiar. What else has she done? -B.A., Montgomery, Ala.

Yes, that was Forke in the Lifetime movie. The actress is best known for her role as fiery pilot Alex Lambert on "Wings." She later had a recurring role on "Lois & Clark: The New Adventures of Superman," then starred in two network flops, "Dweebs" and "Mr. Rhodes." She co-stars in "Kate's Addiction," an independent 1999 feature making the rounds at film festivals.

Courteney Cox Arquette
FRIENDS

What was the last name of Barney's girlfriend, Thelma Lou, on "The Andy Griffith Show"? — A fan in West Virginia.

Great question! And, believe it or not, this recurring character, played by actress Betty Lynn, appears to be the only one without a specified last name. If anyone can substantiate a surname for this character, I'll print it in a future column.

What was the name of the circus-related TV series hosted by Mary Hart? -D. Hunter, Edgewater, Fla.

"Great Circuses of the World," which ran briefly on ABC in 1989.

Sunday's Best Bets

Movie: Father of the Bride Part II
6 P.M. ON ABC

Steve Martin reprises the title role in this warmhearted 1995 sequel to 1991's "Father of the Bride." As his daughter and her new husband get ready to start a family, Dad is hit with the shocking news that his own family isn't complete yet; his wife is expecting a baby, too. Diane Keaton, Martin Short, Kimberly Williams and George Newbern also star.

Touched by an Angel
7 P.M. ON CBS

Andrew (John Dye) feels like a failure when he finds himself unable to help a family deal with an unexpected death. He thinks his assignment is Molly (Julie White, "Grace Under Fire"), who is expecting to be diagnosed with the breast cancer that runs in her family. But it's her husband (Kevin Kilner, "Earth: Final Conflict"), whose death by his own hand takes everyone by surprise, including Andrew.

Movie: Vanity Fair
7 P.M. ON A&E

William Makepeace Thackeray's scheming Becky Sharp and sweet, naive Amelia Sedley were reportedly the inspiration for Margaret Mitchell's Scarlett and Melanie in "Gone With the Wind." In this two-part adaptation of Thackeray's classic, talented British actress Natasha Little plays the orphaned, impoverished Becky, who claws her way into society by using her feminine wiles to snare a series of wealthy men. Her indiscreet behavior, however, gets her funds cut off on more than one occasion. Set during the Napoleonic Wars, the BBC-A&E production also stars Frances Grey, Miriam Margolyes (the DiCaprio-Danes "Romeo & Juliet") and Nathaniel Parker (the Mel Gibson "Hamlet"). Part 2 airs Monday.

FATHER OF THE BRIDE PART II

Any Day Now
7 P.M. ON LIFE

The drama takes a no-holds-barred look at overt and covert bigotry in "It's Not About the Butter." At a restaurant, when M.E. (Annie Potts) automatically assumes an African-American woman is the waitress, Rene (Lorraine Toussaint) tells her it's time to take a good, deep look at herself. As M.E. digs into her past, she makes some shocking discoveries about her attitudes and where they came from ... such as the fact that her uncle is active in a hate group. She confronts him, with devastating results. Michael Pavone guest stars in the powerful two-part story.

Movie: In the Company of Spies
7 P.M. ON SHOW

A former CIA operative is asked back to help spring an ex-colleague who's been detained by the North Koreans. He agrees, but only if he can do it his way. With the help of his hand-picked team of experts, he discovers it's not just his friend who's in danger; it's the whole world. Tom Berenger, Ron Silver, Alice Krige and Arye Gross star in this new thriller, filmed with unprecedented help from the real CIA.

Roseanne wants to have fun

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Talk show host Roseanne may be dealing with low ratings, canceled deals and bad time slots, but this girl just wants to have fun.

According to a show spokeswoman, Roseanne is shooting for the unexpected and broadening her own horizons, all at the same time.

No more prepping for shows for this host. She wants to be as surprised as the rest of us with what happens on her show.

And what happens is often censored. There are plenty of bleeps heard on the set as decorum is thrown out the window.

Perhaps the writing is on the wall about the show's future after this season, and Roseanne figures she might as well have a good time.

Meanwhile, she's tuning her pipes, maybe readying for her next career. Roseanne and her band celebrate TGIF each week by singing numbers including Janis Joplin hits and the Who's "My Generation."

Roseanne is reportedly rocking and rolling after hours as well, singing with WAR in the Greek Theater in Los Angeles. She made her New York singing debut earlier this month in Greenwich Village.

Talk the Talk

Roseanne also had fun during a recent appearance on Howard Stern's show, during which she and Stern phoned her ex-husband, Tom Arnold.

Accusations and barbed remarks were exchanged liberally, and it wasn't clear who came out ahead — besides Stern, of course.

Roseanne also includes regular call-ins on her show, both from average viewers and celebrities.

Callers have included actor George Clooney, as well as the ex-Mrs. Trump, Marla Maples, and singer and former talk host Carnie Wilson.

Wilson, who had the same stomach-shrinking surgery as Roseanne, talked about her 50-pound weight loss and her Website, on which fans can read all about the surgery.

Roseanne is also turning high-tech, utilizing the Internet whenever possible. She is happy to chat on her Website at Theroseanneshow.com, and her Webmaster, Bob Hellman, appears on the show to discuss current online happenings.

Roseanne

She also says she loves to use e-mail and picks many guests from those who write to her at Roseanne@about.com.

Down the hall, new host Martin Short is learning the talk show ropes. New shows usually are welcomed with such gifts as flowers and champagne.

Howie Mandel, whose own show fell short of the mark last year, gave a different present.

He sent Short a hamster in a cage, with a note saying something about keeping the wheels spinning.

Let Me In, I Hear Laughter: A Salute to the Friars
6 P.M. ON MAX

A year after letting one of its infamous roasts be televised for the first time, the elite, secretive showbiz club opens its door a little more. This hour-long documentary special is packed with laughter- and tear-filled moments from past roasts, as well as reminiscences by famous Friars old and new.

JAG
7 P.M. ON CBS

In the encore of "Yeah, Baby," Bud (Patrick Labyorteaux) deals with the case of a pregnant sergeant (Stacey Travis) and his own impending fatherhood. Of course, both the sergeant and Harriet (Karri Turner) go into labor at the same time. Mac (Catherine Bell) has an attack of maternal instinct when she says goodbye to Chloe (Mae Whitman). The only one not consumed by family matters is Harm (David James Elliott), who's busy trying to reclaim his naval aviator designation. John M. Jackson also stars.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Angie Dickinson: Tinseltown's Classiest Broad" is a historic event. Dickinson is so protective of her privacy that she walked out on "This Is Your Life." In this profile, set to the music of her ex-husband Burt Bacharach, she talks candidly about her eventful life and career, including her years as the Rat Pack's best female buddy and the action roles that shaped her gutsy but sexy image.

SPORTS NIGHT

Dharma & Greg
8 P.M. ON ABC

Just in time for Halloween, Dharma and Greg (Jenna Elfman, Thomas Gibson) get a visit from a ghost. It's the spirit of a neighbor who died recently, back to tie up some loose ends. Amazingly enough, the ghostly guest turns out to have a positive effect on the couple's sex life.

Attack of the 50-Foot Monstermania
8 P.M. ON AMC

In real life, the things that scare us most may be small or even microscopic — bullets and viruses, for example. But at the movies, we like our scares big. That's the premise of this hour-long salute to mammoth monsters of the movies. They're all here: the ice creature in 1912's "Conquest of the Pole"; the original King Kong; the massive, mutated spiders, lizards and people of our nuclear nightmares; and the high-tech extraterrestrial terrors of today.

Sports Night
8:30 P.M. ON ABC

Natalie's (Sabrina Lloyd) correspondence with Louise, Jeremy's (Joshua Malina) sister, has him worried in "Louise Revisited." Dana (Felicity Huffman) sends Casey (Peter Krause) some very mixed signals, while abrasive consultant Sam (William H. Macy) does likewise with the whole staff.

Wednesday's Best Bets

Movie: A Secret Affair
8 P.M. ON CBS

A young executive (Janine Turner) who's feeling hemmed in by her seemingly perfect life gets a lesson in following her dreams from a handsome, free-spirited journalist (Paudge Behan). But if her dreams include him, she may be out of luck. Fionnula Flanagan also stars in this new romance based on a book by Barbara Taylor Bradford.

Get Real
8 P.M. ON FOX

Kenny (Jesse Eisenberg), nervous over his date with Rebecca (guest star Taryn Manning), seeks some advice about the female psyche from big sister Meghan (Anne Hathaway). Dating may be new to Kenny, but it's bound to go better than Cameron's (Eric Olsen) attempt at something new — scuba diving — which almost costs him his life. Jon Tenney also stars in "Performance Anxiety."

Oh Grow Up
8:30 P.M. ON ABC

Most straight men are afraid to go near a gay bar: What if someone they know sees them and thinks ... ? (Not that there's anything wrong with that.) But Hunter (Stephen Dunham) is willing to take the risk and offers to accompany the newly uncloseted Ford (John Ducey) to a gay bar on Halloween. And sure enough, he meets someone he knows: his boss (Ed Marinaro).

John Ducey
OH GROW UP

Chloe (Niesha Trout) has her own Halloween plans, which she definitely isn't sharing with Dad, in "Clods & Monsters."

True Life
9 P.M. ON MTV

Racial profiling — the controversial police practice of singling out minorities for traffic stops — is the focus of "I Am Driving While Black." Numerous blacks and Hispanics say they've been pulled over, harassed and even assaulted by police solely because of their color. In this half-hour, celebrities and ordinary people talk about their experiences with racial profiling and its effects on their psyches and their driving routes. The program also accompanies police on patrol and visits with a group of minority officers who are training young people on how to deal with police.

The N.Y. Friar's Club Roast of Jerry Stiller
9:30 P.M. ON COMD

The 70-year-old comic-actor may find himself shouting, "Serenity now!" as friends, relatives and colleagues rake him over the proverbial coals. Among those slated to take their best shots at Stiller during the event — only the second televised roast in the Friars' long history of good-natured abuse fests — are fellow septuagenarian comic Alan King; Stiller's wife and comedy partner, Anne Meara; and his son, actor Ben Stiller. Jason Alexander, who's not Stiller's son but played him on TV, is host of the roast.

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown
7 P.M. ON CBS

This "Peanuts" holiday special is as much of a treat as it was in 1966, when Linus first settled down in the pumpkin patch on Halloween night to await his holiday hero. Charlie Brown is still getting rocks in his goody bag, Snoopy is still dancing in the moonlight and Sally is still righteously indignant over missing out on trick-or-treating. Will the Great Pumpkin ever appear? Only the most sincere believer knows for sure.

Ryan Caulfield: Year One
7 P.M. ON FOX

An argument among neighbors gets ugly — and threatens to get uglier — when the squabblers start throwing out ethnic insults. Ryan and Susser (Sean Maher, Michael Rispoli) are on the case, but it turns out this is just the latest skirmish in a generations-old feud. It'll take more than calming down the combatants — or even arresting them — to end it. Roselyn Sanchez also stars in "Po-Piggity and Other Racial Slurs."

Movie: The Disciples
7 P.M. ON UPN

Four talented martial artists are brought together by a mysterious master to play bodyguard for a baseball player who's become a kidnapping target. And the kidnappers aren't leaving anything to chance: They've hired professionals to do the deed. Ice-T, Eva Mendez and Greg Lauren star in this action-adventure original.

John Daley
FREAKS AND GEEKS

Movie: The X-Files
7 P.M. ON HBO

The big-screen adaptation of the TV hit finds Mulder and Scully (David Duchovny, Gillian Anderson) off alien investigations and on anti-terrorism duty. Their investigation of a building explosion in Dallas soon gives them a reason to get back to looking for the truth "out there." Martin Landau, Blythe Danner and Armin Mueller-Stahl also star.

Freaks and Geeks
8 P.M. ON NBC

An encore of the "Pilot" introduces Lindsay and Sam (Linda Cardellini, John Daley), siblings dealing with high-school life circa 1980. Sophomore Lindsay finds herself gravitating toward the school's "freaks," while her diminutive brother, and his geeky friends band together for a showdown with the school bully. James Franco also stars.

The Hughleys
8:30 P.M. ON ABC

"The Curse of the Coyote Man" will tickle the funny bones of "Blair Witch Project" fans. Armed with a video camera, Darryl, Dave and Milsap (D.L. Hughley, Eric Allan Kramer, John Henton) follow Michael and Sydney (Dee Jay Daniels, Ashley Monique Clark) on their trick-or-treating rounds, hoping to capture their reactions to a scary story of a child-killer. When the men wind up in the woods, though, the story starts to feel real. David Arquette ("Scream") guest stars.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

5 P.M. ON LIFE

Movie: It

An evil force returns to the small town it terrorized 30 years earlier, and the seven friends who faced it down as youngsters are back to do battle with it again. This 1990 adaptation of a Stephen King novel received lukewarm reviews from the book's fans, but even they raved about Tim Curry's portrayal of Pennywise the clown, the evil entity's "human" form. John Ritter, Harry Anderson and Annette O'Toole also star.

6 P.M. ON ESPN

College Football

Chris Weinke is healthy again and thriving as Florida State's quarterback, something he hopes remains true following this game at Virginia. Last season, in a game against the Cavaliers, Weinke injured his neck, effectively ending his team's chances at a national championship. After six games this season, the 27-year-old junior is back better than ever, ranking as the nation's seventh-best quarterback while leading the Seminoles to the No. 1 ranking. The Cavaliers' offense revolves around tailback Thomas Jones, who is putting together another solid season after gaining 1,303 yards a year ago.

7 P.M. ON ABC

Movie: A Time to Kill

A white Southern lawyer (Matthew McConaughey) incurs the wrath of the Ku Klux Klan for defending a black man accused of killing his 10-year-old daughter's rapists. Samuel L. Jackson gives a masterful performance as the defendant in this 1996 drama based on John Grisham's first novel. Sandra Bullock, Kiefer Sutherland and Ashley Judd also star.

Early Edition

Gary (Kyle Chandler) doesn't have to look far for disasters in "Wild Card," although he was hoping to take it easy this Halloween. A nervous Patrick (Billie Worley), who can't seem to break the news to Gary that he's leaving McGinty's, is getting in his way, creating one crisis after another. When a big one hits — an explosion at a rave party — Gary orders Patrick to keep still. But he can't resist trying to help, and soon he's in mortal danger.

7:05 P.M. ON TBS

Movie: Poltergeist

In 1982, the same year that Steven Spielberg was charming us with "E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial," he was scaring us out of our wits with another tale of otherworldly creatures. He co-wrote and co-produced this story of a suburban family terrorized by ghosts who snatch the youngest daughter. Craig T. Nelson stars with JoBeth Williams and two young actresses whose real lives would end tragically: Heather O'Rourke and Dominique Dunne.
